John Martin, Jr., is the fourth son of Captain John Martin.

The date of birth for John Martin is not confirmed but is what most historians believe is probably accurate. His date of death is only a guess, since he left a will that was dated January 14, 1821, in Moore County, North Carolina. His named executors were his brother - Murdoch Martin, Archibald McBryde, and Atlas Jones. The will was probated/proved in May of 1924 and a copy is included in this memorial.	See the next page for additional information: John Martin

In his will John Martin, Jr. mentions no wife and no children of his own which is in accord with a history of Moore County that states he never married. In fact, he leaves everything to his siblings and a nephew as below:

- * Brother - Murdoch Martin
- * Sister - Catherine Murchison (married to Kenneth Murchison)
- * Sister - Florah Black
- * Brother - William Martin's 6 children (William Martin married Flora McQueen) - The heirs are Margaret, Sarah, Catherine, John, Sophia, and William.
- * Sister - Florah McMillan (And notes that if she dies without issue, then split the inheritance between his sisters Margaret Martin Martin and Florah Black.)
- * Nephew - Donald Murchison

Many descendants of Mary Susan McDuffie believe her husband was this John Martin, however, there is nothing found to confirm or substantiate this, so whoever Ms. Duffie did marry, it was not John Martin, the son of Capt. John Martin from Isle of Skye in Scotland.

Since a grave has not been found for John Martin, Jr. his memorial is created in the Old Scotch Graveyard, for which property and location was granted and provided by his father.

Sarah is not mentioned in the 1791 will of her husband and she is not found in the 1790 census of Moore County, so it is assumed she had already passed away.

Capt. John Martin provided the land where the Old Scotch Cemetery is located and it's believed he intended to be buried there but went back to Scotland and was buried there when he died.

William Martin is Capt. John Martin's second son.

William Martin had a son named William Pinckney Martin, but William - the father was never found with the middle initial of P or as Pinckney for his own middle name, so it's not confirmed.

Bio excerpt from McLendon's Creek Homesteads, page 459

"William was both a planter and a merchant, and active in politics as well. He was a member of the North Carolina House of Commons from 1788 to 1791, and the Senate in 1793.

Possibly William Martin's greatest claim to fame was that he operated the Martin Old Stores, an establishment that proved the old real estate maxim, 'It's location, and location, and location!'. Old Stores was located at a strategic place, on the intersection of the Old Raleigh Road and the Old Yadkin Road at the top of the ridge line in Western Moore County. The Old Raleigh Road is roughly along the same trace as present-day #1241 now called Holly Grove School Road, and of course the Yadkin Road is now NC

Text from previous page: Elizabeth Worthy McCaskill

From the Presbyterian.

In Moore county, on the 18th of October, Mrs ELIZABETH McCASKILL, in the 65th year of her age.

Warm-hearted, cheerful and sociable, Mrs. McCaskill had many warm friends, and it has often been remarked since her death that there are very few whom the community generally would miss so sadly. Having been left a widow in early life, she reared her family by her own energy and industry. Having accomplished that duty in a most creditable manner, she spent during the latter part of her life a great portion of her time in ministering to the needy and afflicted. She was at home in the sick room, and her presence there was always a source of comfort to the sufferer. Orphans found in her an ardent and untiring friend, and appealed to her for aid and counsel with an assurance that expected and received no denial.

Surely we have good reason to hope that she has heard from a Saviour's lips the precious words, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." She was a member of Union Church for many years. PASTOR.

Saturday, evening 19th ult. Miss Mary Ann Person, only daughter of Gen. Benj. Person, late of Moore county. The deceased was much admired for her various accomplishments, while her many virtues and good qualities acquired and retained the sincerest regard of all her thinking acquaintances. Carthage has lost, perhaps not its fairest, yet its most fragrant flower, to bloom, we hope, in a fairer garden, and in a more genial climate than this vale of tears. [Cont.]
